CHURCH TROUBLE IN PORTSMOUTH

Rev. Bascom Dey Greeted by a Large Congregation.

THE SPLIT IS DEPLORED

Do Not Expect to See Trouble Healed Until Holiness People Leave.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORPOLK, VA., December 5.—The first appearance of the Rev. Bascom Dey in the pulpit of Park Mary Church, Portsmouth, yesterday was great ed by a packed auditorium, and the warelements of the congregation were well represented.

The Sunday school of the church, however, emphasized the seriousness of the existing breach. In the Park View Hose Company's house a new Sunday school was organized and the following officers elected: Mr. B. Cleburne Browne, superintendent; Mr. Harry Moore, assistant auperintendent; Mrs. J. H. Fleming, lady superintendent; Mr. C. W. Johnson, secretury; Mr. George Rilee, assistant sceretary; Mr. F. T. Briggs, treasurer; Mrs.
C. T. Johnson, librarian; Mr. Nash Small, assistant librarian; Miss Lizzle Hart, organist; Miss Rice, assistant organist; and George Abele, musical director.
The teachers elected were Mrs. George Tonkins, Mr. George Abele, Mrs. W. B.
Hart, Miss Beulah Nash, Mrs. E. B.
Wilkins, Miss Lou Spindle, Mrs. C. W.
Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Fleming, Mr. A. A.

class.

Announcement was made that an oyster supper will be held in the engine house next Thursday night, for the benefit of the new Sunday school.

Mr. C. W. Johnson, the secretary of the new Sunday school organization, said that it is not the intention of the boiting faction to organize a new church. They will, however, continue to run the Sunday school, pending a solution of existing froubles.

"My personal opinion is," declared Mr.

school, pending a solution of existing froubles. "My personal opinion is," declared Mr. Johnson, "that the matter will never be wettled amicably until the 'sanctified' dement gets out and forms as organization of its own. There is no doubt in my mind that they are at the bottom of the whole matter. The trouble has been browing for years, and would have reached an issue eighteen months ago but for our reluctunce to give trouble to Mr. Latham, then paster of our church.

"To show you what the other side would stoop to do," he continued, "one of the lady members of that faction deliberately intercepted a letter written by the pastor's wife to a lady member of the church, and read it in public. The missive was in the hands of a child, and this lady took it from her, suspecting it contained matter in reference to the trouble in the church."

h."

Johnson said that pending a setnt of the trouble the members of Issenting faction will attend serin the other Methodist churches of ty

the dissenting faction will attent services in the other Methodist churches of the city.

In contrast to this was the reception accorded Rev. Mr. Dey.

The new pastor was introduced to his congregation by Captain E. V. White, one of the pillars of the church, who, in the course of his brief remarks, deplored the "unnecessary notoricty" that has been given to the existing trouble in the church. The Captain was emphatic in his assertion that had all the facts in the case been carefully welghed and considered there would have been no trouble. He added that this is the opinion of Bishop Wilson himself.

Immediately after, these introductory remarks, Mr. T. L. Cleaton, the superintendent of the Sunday school, arose to declare that in viow of the position in which he has been placed by the dissension in the church, he felt he should say a few words.

dissension in the church, he felt he should say a few words.
"I want it understood," he proceeded, "that ours is strictly a 'Methodist Sunday school, reports to the contrary not-withstanding. I wish to say that these people in our church, who are termed 'Second Blessing' folks, are good, faithful people, and I, for one, will not put them out. They are some of the best people in our midst, and I believe we should stand by them."
"As for the opposition school opened

"As for the opposition school opened this morning on Holladay Street, I regard it as a direct thrust at me. They didn't notify me, and it is my confident belie-that God will not uplied them in their new undertaking. I do believe, however, we are going to prosper under His guidance." Mr. Cleaton spoke feelingly, with a frencer in his wolce. He hoped God would forgive the bolting faction, because they "do not know what they are And he expressed the hope that

A Letter from Rev. Father

J. F. Hickey, of Foxboro, Mass.

Rev. J. F. Hickoy, of St. Mary's Church, foxboro, Mass., says: "I have taken Father John's Medicine with most gratifying results. As a body builder, I have not heard of or seen its equal." This old remedy is invaluable as a tonic-it drives out all impurities and makes strength Not a patent medicine and free from polsonous drugs or acids, pure and wholesome. Its gentle laxative effects corrects the digestion and strengthens the stomach. Cures colds and all throa ind lung troubles.

A DOCTOR'S STORY

Dr. L. A. Crinnian, of Stanley, Ky. ays: "My sister is past, 82 years old, and she gets about more like a young person one so old since taking Fr. John's Medicine, which has done her so much good. I shall recommend it to the physicians in this section," Cures colds, throat and lung troubles; makes flesh and builds up the body-not a patent medicine. We guarantee this old prescrip, they will soon come back into the church, that the spirit of Methodism might prevail in harmony and concord.

Mr. Doy preached a jucid, forcible sermon, and was heard with marked attention throughout. He prefaced his discourse with a few pertinent remarks relative to his assignment to his present charge, laying stress on the fact that he had no voice in the matter whatever. It was the ruling of the bishop, and he had simply acted in accordance with his bidding.

"I am here to do the best within my power," he said, "and I expect your hearty co-operation. It is my carriest hope and expectation that things will move harmoniously and that every one will work in unison and concord for the good of the church."

IN THE INTEREST OF ARBITRATION

Mass-Meeting of Richmond Citizens to be Held December 16th.

SEVERAL NOTED SPEAKERS

Monsignor O'Connell and Dr. Hannis Taylor, of Washington, Will be Here.

An adjourned meeting of the Citizens Committee, appointed to arrange for a mass meeting in Richmond for the pur-pose of advocating the principle of inter pose of advocating the principle of international arbitration and treaties between the United States and foreign powers slong the lines of the Anglo-French arbitration treaty of 1905, was held yesterday evening at 5 o'clock in the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce, There were present Judge Lunsford L Lewis, Hon. Eppa Hunton, Jr., and Messrs, James N. Boyd, George Bryan, Henry L. Caboll, E. G. Leigh, Jr., W. R. Meredith and A. B. Williams.

At the request of Judge Lewis, chairman of the General Committee; Hon. Eppa Hunton, Jr., presided over the meet-man of the General Committee; Hon Sppa Hunton, Jr., presided over the meet

Judge Lewis, chairman of the Commit-tee to Investigate the Subject of Interna-tional Arbitration, and the general pro-vision of the treaties, recently negotiated between the United States, Great Britain and other countries, reported that, al-though the information to be gtahered on the subject was necessarily quite limon the subject was necessarily quite limited, yet it was authoritatively stated that those treaties are substantially similar to the Anglo-French arbitration treaty of 1803, and, upon that understanding, the report proceeded to favor the mass meeting and such treaties as embody the principle of, international arbitration on the lines of the Anglo-French treaty. The report submitted by Judge Lewis was then adopted.

Meet at the Academy.

Meet at the Academy. Mrc. George Bryan, on behalf of the Committee on Hall and Date, reported that the Academy of Music could be procured for a mass meeting on the 18th instant and his report was adopted thus fixing the time and place of the proposed meeting.

fixing the time and place of the proposed meeting.

Mr. E. G. Leigh, Jr., chairman of the Committee on Speakers, reported that Monsignor D. J. O'Connell and Dr. Hannis Taylor had consented to address the mass meeting in Richmend in the interest of international arbitration, and his committee was continued with the expectation that they might possibly secure a third speaker for the occasion.

Mr. A. B. Williams, chairman of the Committee on Publicity, reported that both The Times-Dispatch and the News Leader had in local notices and editorially called attention to the proposed meeting, and that their columns would still be devoted to its interests. In response the chairman expressed the thanks of the committee to the press for its valuable assistance.

The motion was then made and carried that a committee of arrangements, with that a committee of arrangements, with the general chairman as chairman, be appointed to perfect all details not provided for by committees already appointed.

The meeting then adjourned until Monday, the 12th instant.

Dr. Taylor, one of the speakers at the Academy of Maiste, is quite well known personally to Virginians. He was born at Newbern, N. C., in 1851; was graduated from the University of North Carolina, and has had the degree of LL. D. conferred on him five times. He is at present professor of constitutional and international has at Columbian University, Washington.

the Murder of Dennis Colbert.

(Bpecial to The Times-Dispatch.)

MANANSAS, VA., Dec, 5.—Carcuit Court for Prince William county convened this morning, with Judge Charles E, Nicol presiding. The only trial of much interest to be heard at this term of the court will be the case of the Commonwealth against R. L. Meinteer, to be heard on Wednesday, the third day of the term. The grand jury at the last term of the court found a true bill against McInteer for attempting to kill Dennis Colbert at Dumfries, the home of both parties. It will, perhaps, be remembered that McInteer was tried in the County Court of this county under the old court system some time ago, and convicted of an attempt to kill his brother.
